

Communications Volunteer

We're looking for a communications volunteer to join our team. This is a very flexible position for somebody who wants to make a difference through communications and the environmental sector. If you're great with words, photos, social media or websites and love trees and the environment, we'd love to hear from you.

About the role

- 2-5 days a week
- Minimum 3 months
- Working at home or from our offices in Cowley, Oxford
- Expenses paid.

Who are we looking for?

We're looking for a talented communicator who can support the communications team to show the impact of our work and help create long-term supporter loyalty. The work will be tailored to your strengths and experience, but we are looking for support writing content for our website and updating social media.

Experience in any of these areas would be a huge asset:

- Social media
- Writing blogs
- Website management
- Photo and video editing

About International Tree Foundation (ITF)

International Tree Foundation was founded 100 years ago in Kenya and now plants trees across Africa, the UK and Ireland. We are dedicated to planting the right species, in the right place, for the right reasons because when reforestation is done right it improves ecosystems, landscapes and lives.

How to apply

To apply please send your CV and covering letter (max 1 page) detailing your skills and experience to Esther@internationaltreefoundation.org.
